Police arrest Red Hook man on drug charge

The Red Hook Police Department charged a Linden Avenue resident with second degree criminal possession of a controlled substance, a class A-II Felony, after they reported to his house for a noise disturbance complaint. Police arrived at William Tanksley's home on Saturday. Upon further investigation, police found "a quantity of drugs," allegedly belonging to Tanksley, according to Sgt. Patrick Hildenbrand of the Red Hook Police Department. Tanksley was arraigned in the Village of Red Hook Court.
